

THE CONNECTION 2005

CELEBRATING WESTERN NEW YORK'S HISTORIC TURN-OF-THE-CENTURY ARTS & CRAFTS TRAIL

ARTS & CRAFTS CONFERENCE

We are delighted to once again present to you an autumn weekend combining the ambiance and the history of the Chautauqua Institution with the scholarship and comradery of Arts & Crafts experts, artisans, decorators, collectors, homeowners and just those interested in the philosophy, history and works of that time – the turn of the 20th Century. The Chautauqua Institution is the perfect place to bring back that feeling of a simpler, more meaningful life style – the goal of the design and philosophy of the Arts & Crafts era.

We are honored to present Stuart Robertson of the Charles Rennie Mackintosh Society as our Keynote speaker, as well as distinguished featured speakers for our lecture series.

The weekend will be filled with special events including walking tours (one of Arts & Crafts sites and another of the history of the Chautauqua Institution), Saturday evening's renowned Art & Craft Dining Experience, an Appraisal Fair on Sunday, and a Craft Show and Sale exhibited by Roycroft Renaissance artisans and other contemporary artists. The Appraisal Fair, Artisan Show and Sale and walking tours will be open to the public.

This year we will be having various displays of items relevant to the period throughout the Institution grounds.

And remember... the beauty of the colorful turning leaf season will be in full force . We hope to see you there!
